

Dear, Mr. James T. Fox,

12/2/18

My name is Gerardo Medina and I am currently a sophomore at Concordia University Chicago. I just wanted to say thank you for your contributions towards our scholarships here at school.

Without this scholarship, there is a chance that I may not have had attended college, so contributions like yours are huge because I know many students that simply cannot afford college without a scholarship. Currently, I am majoring in criminal justice and political science, with an eye towards going to law school or working in law enforcement in some capacity. My experience here at Concordia University Chicago has been great! I have made many new friends and everyone at school, including professors, are always friendly and willing to help. People say that college is supposed to be the best time of your life, and my experience at CUC has surpassed my expectations. Anyways, thank you again for your contribution, it is greatly appreciated, and I am definitely putting it to good use!

Sincerely, Gerardo Medina

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Gerardo Medina". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned below the typed name.